The perfect place to get away, Givhans Ferry State Park offers both cabin accommodations and camping along the Edisto River, the longest free-flowing blackwater river in North America. Just a short drive from Charleston, the park's 988 acres create a stunning finale to a 21-mile stretch of kayaking paradise. Hike along the riverbanks to view the rare plants that thrive along the limestone bluffs, cast away for blue catfish, striped bass, eel and more, or enjoy a picnic with friends and family in this natural retreat.

ACCOMMODATIONS & FACILITIES:

988 acres • 25 campsites with electric & water
Primitive group camping • 4 2BR cabins
2 picnic shelters • Trails • Playground

TOP THINGS TO SEE & DO:

Camping • Horseback riding • Bird-watching • Fishing
Boating • Canoeing • Kayaking • Picnicking • Swimming Geocaching • Biking • Hiking • Scheduled programs & events offered throughout year

We hope you have a safe and memorable experience at Givhans Ferry State Park.
