

“A Perfect Girls’ Weekend”

Hunting Island State Park

Women’s Coastal Skills Clinic

April 12th-14th, 2013

A weekend workshop designed to teach skills to expand women’s knowledge of the Low Country outdoors!

The weekend begins on the afternoon of Friday, April 12th with a Naturalist guided tour of the salt marsh. Twelve educational, hands-on programs will be offered including Crabbing, Shrimping, Salt Marsh Kayaking, Shell Fishing, Beachcombing, Fishing, Birding 101, History of the Lighthouse, Knot Tying and more!

*“Stayed at the park, camping—
Staff was wonderful, pleasant and helpful.”*

You will have the unique opportunity to watch the sunrise from atop the lighthouse! A special occasion once reserved for lighthouse keepers of old.

Sleeping accommodations are your responsibility. Make reservations to bring your tent/RV and camp at our campground, 843-838-2011. Or stay at one of our Primitive Campsites FREE of charge. There are plenty of wonderful places to stay in nearby Beaufort also.

Meals will include a delicious authentic Low Country Frogmore Stew and an old-fashioned Oyster Roast.

Please register early by calling 843-838-7437. This program is limited to 60 participants and designed for women age 16 and older. Sorry, but we cannot accept registrations from organized groups.

Fees are $199 per person and receive $50 in presents!

*“Great way to meet new people
and make new friends!”*
