

Living History Weekend

MUSGROVE MILL STATE HISTORIC SITE

APRIL 29-30, 2017
10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Adults: $4 • Children (ages 6 to 16): $2 • Children (ages 5 and under): Free

Come experience what life was like on the South Carolina frontier during the American Revolution! Activities will highlight the battle fought at Musgrove Mill in August of 1780 through interpretive talks, demonstrations and exhibits offered by re-enactors. The demonstrations include: flintlock weapons demonstrations, tactical military demonstrations, period children's games, colonial art, colonial medicine, blacksmithing and more.

Weapons demonstrations
Colonial surveying
Colonial doll making

Colonial toys and games
A special muster drill
Guided hikes and more!

Musgrove Mill State Historic Site
398 State Park Road • Clinton, SC 29325
MusgroveMill@scprt.com • 864.938.0100
SouthCarolinaParks.com

